During the three months ended June 30, 2021 (fiscal 2022), the global economy saw steady progress, with economic recovery in those countries like the U.S., that have pursued COVID-19 vaccination programs and economic normalization globally following the steps that have been taken toward this aim. On the other hand, the global economic outlook remains unclear, given the uncertainty over ongoing situation concerning COVID-19. Japan is also affected by these conditions to no small extent.

Under such management conditions, Panasonic continues to control fixed costs according to business conditions and to make efforts to capture new business opportunities reflecting changes in society brought about by COVID-19. Through all these efforts, the Company will continue to execute portfolio management and enhance its management structure in the final year of the Mid-term strategy that started in fiscal 2020. Additionally, in all of our businesses, the Company will identify the areas in which the Company should be aggressive and thoroughly enhance the competitiveness in these areas.

For the three months ended June 30, 2021, in April 2021, the Company resolved to make the U.S. company Blue Yonder Holding, Inc. ("Blue Yonder"), which is one of the leading global providers of specialized supply chain software, a wholly-owned subsidiary by additionally acquiring 80% of its shares. Accordingly, the Company reached a final agreement with Blue Yonder and its substantial shareholders. As a result, together with the 20% of Blue Yonder's shares already acquired in July 2020, the Company will acquire all the shares of Blue Yonder after the completion of necessary procedures. Through this acquisition, the Company will gain Blue Yonder's state-of-the-art artificial intelligence (AI) and machine learning (ML) technologies as well as its expertise in the supply chain package software business and recurring business, which enables the Company to further accelerate its Gemba (operational frontlines) Process business. In addition, the Company will strengthen operational capability of its own supply chain (including increasing cost competitiveness) and accelerate its transformation by incorporating and combining Blue Yonder's agile corporate culture.

Furthermore, Panasonic is scheduled to transition from April 2022 to a new organizational system of operating companies working with a holding company. In preparation for the transition, in October 2021, the current Divisional Company system is scheduled to be terminated and the business structure to be reorganized. Under the new structure, the Company will steadily execute the Mid-term strategy and prepare for the smooth operation of each operating company to be established on April 1, 2022.

For the three months ended June 30, 2021, the Company's consolidated group sales increased by 29% to 1,792.4 billion yen from a year ago. Domestic sales increased driven mainly by infotainment systems, and mounting machines in Process Automation. Overseas sales also increased due mainly to increased sales of automotive batteries with growing demand as well as increased sales in Home Appliances, Systems and Devices, which captured business opportunities reflecting changes in society.

Operating profit increased to 104.4 billion yen (3.8 billion yen for the same period last year) due mainly to increased sales as well as thorough controlled costs. Profit before income taxes increased to 108.5 billion yen (3.1 billion yen for the same period last year), and Net profit attributable to Panasonic Corporation stockholders increased to 76.5 billion yen (a loss of 9.8 billion yen for the same period last year).

B. Breakdown by Reportable Segment

Appliances

	Yen (billions)
	Fiscal 2022 First quarter	Fiscal 2021 First quarter	Percentage 2022/2021
Sales	674.3	554.1	122%
Operating profit	42.1	15.2	277%

Sales increased by 22% to 674.3 billion yen from a year ago. This is due mainly to steady sales of TVs, cooking appliances, personal-care products as well as room air-conditioners in Asia and Europe. Operating profit increased to 42.1 billion yen from a year ago due mainly to increased sales and control of sales promotion expenses, which offset factors such as the impact of price hikes of raw materials.

Life Solutions

	Yen (billions)
	Fiscal 2022 First quarter	Fiscal 2021 First quarter	Percentage 2022/2021
Sales	355.2	326.3	109%
Operating profit	12.6	5.6	227%

Sales increased by 9% to 355.2 billion yen from a year ago. This is due to favorable sales of ceiling fans in overseas market as well as products such as wiring devices in Japan and overseas, which benefited from market recovery. Operating profit increased to 12.6 billion yen from a year ago due mainly to increased sales offsetting factors such as the impact of price hikes of raw materials.

Connected Solutions

	Yen (billions)
	Fiscal 2022 First quarter	Fiscal 2021 First quarter	Percentage 2022/2021
Sales	208.5	185.2	113%
Operating profit (loss)	0.2	(16.0)	—

Sales increased by 13% to 208.5 billion yen from a year ago. This is due mainly to increased sales of mounting machines with growing demand for ICT terminals and 5G-related equipment. Operating profit increased to 0.2 billion yen from a year ago. This is due to increased sales as well as the effect of fixed cost reductions.

Automotive

Yen (billions)

	Fiscal 2022 First quarter	Fiscal 2021 First quarter	Percentage 2022/2021
Sales	373.7	210.8	177%
Operating profit (loss)	9.8	(9.5)	—

Sales increased by 77% to 373.7 billion yen from a year ago. This is due mainly to increased sales in Automotive Solutions with automobile market recovery, and increased sales in Automotive Batteries with growing demand as well as the rebound after temporary suspension at customers' factories in the previous year. Operating profit increased to 9.8 billion yen from a year ago. This is due largely to increased sales, despite the impact of one-time gain recorded in the previous year.

Industrial Solutions

Yen (billions)

	Fiscal 2022 First quarter	Fiscal 2021 First quarter	Percentage 2022/2021
Sales	357.6	288.6	124%
Operating profit	35.3	9.2	384%

Sales increased by 24% to 357.6 billion yen from a year ago. This is due mainly to increased sales of capacitors, industrial-use motors and power storage systems. Operating profit increased to 35.3 billion yen from a year ago. This is due to increased sales and the effect of fixed cost reductions, despite the impact of price hikes of raw materials.

C. Consolidated Financial Condition

Net cash provided by operating activities for the first quarter ended June 30, 2021, amounted to 130.1 billion yen, compared with an outflow of 98.3 billion yen a year ago. This is due mainly to increased quarterly net profit as well as an increase in Trade payables, despite an increase in Inventories. Net cash used in investing activities amounted to 59.0 billion yen, compared with an inflow of 44.1 billion yen a year ago. This is due mainly to proceeds from the establishment of a joint venture in the automotive prismatic battery business in the previous year. Accordingly, free cash flow (net cash provided by operating activities and investment activities) improved by 125.3 billion yen from a year ago to an inflow of 71.1 billion yen.

Net cash used in financial activities amounted to 46.2 billion yen, compared with an inflow of 104.5 billion yen a year ago. This is due mainly to the issuance of short-term bonds a year ago. Taking factors such as exchange fluctuations into consideration, cash and cash equivalents totaled 1,625.4 billion yen as of June 30, 2021, which is an increase of 32.2 billion yen from March 31, 2021.

The Company's consolidated total assets of June 30, 2021 were 6,945.7 billion yen, which is an increase of 98.6 billion yen from March 31, 2021. This is due mainly to an increase in cash and cash equivalents as well as an increase in Inventories.

The Company's consolidated total liabilities were 4,111.4 billion yen, which is an increase of 32.8 billion yen from March 31, 2021. This is due mainly to an increase of Trade payables and Other current liabilities.

Panasonic Corporation stockholders' equity increased by 68.5 billion yen from March 31, 2021, to 2,662.6 billion yen. This is due mainly to recording of Net profit attributable to Panasonic Corporation stockholders. With non-controlling interests added to Panasonic Corporation stockholders' equity, total equity was 2,834.3 billion yen.

2. Forecast for fiscal 2022

The consolidated financial forecast for fiscal 2022 remains unchanged from the forecast announced on May 10, 2021.

The first quarter results steadily progressed exceeding the initial expectations at the beginning of fiscal 2022. The Company continues to take necessary countermeasures to the uncertainty for business environment in the future as well as anticipated risks, and aims to reach above the level of the full-year forecast.

Disclaimer Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes forward-looking statements about Panasonic and its Group companies (the Panasonic Group). To the extent that statements in this press release do not relate to historical or current facts, they constitute forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on the current assumptions and beliefs of the Panasonic Group in light of the information currently available to it, and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors. Such risks, uncertainties and other factors may cause the Panasonic Group's actual results, performance, achievements or financial position to be materially different from any future results, performance, achievements or financial position expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. Panasonic undertakes no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statements after the date of this press release. Investors are advised to consult any further disclosures by Panasonic in its subsequent filings under the Financial Instrument and Exchange Act of Japan (the FIEA) and other publicly disclosed documents.

The risks, uncertainties and other factors referred to above include, but are not limited to, economic conditions, particularly consumer spending and corporate capital expenditures in the Americas, Europe, Japan, China and other Asian countries; volatility in demand for electronic equipment and components from business and industrial customers, as well as consumers in many product and geographical markets; the possibility that the spread of the novel coronavirus infections may adversely affect business activities of the Panasonic Group; the possibility that excessive currency rate fluctuations of the U.S. dollar, the euro, the Chinese yuan and other currencies against the yen may adversely affect costs and prices of Panasonic's products and services and certain other transactions that are denominated in these foreign currencies; the possibility of the Panasonic Group incurring additional costs of raising funds, because of changes in the fund raising environment; the possibility of the Panasonic Group not being able to respond to rapid technological changes and changing consumer preferences with timely and cost-effective introductions of new products in markets that are highly competitive in terms of both price and technology; the possibility of not achieving expected results or incurring unexpected losses in connection with the alliances or mergers and acquisitions; the possibility of not being able to achieve its business objectives through joint ventures and other collaborative agreements with other companies, including due to the pressure of price reduction exceeding that which can be achieved by its effort and decrease in demand for products from business partners which Panasonic highly depends on in BtoB business areas; the possibility of not achieving expected benefits in connection with the transition to a new organizational system in which Panasonic is a holding company; the possibility of the Panasonic Group not being able to maintain competitive strength in many product and geographical areas; the possibility of incurring expenses resulting from any defects in products or services of the Panasonic Group; the possibility that the Panasonic Group may face intellectual property infringement claims by third parties; current and potential, direct and indirect restrictions imposed by other countries over trade, manufacturing, labor and operations; restrictions, costs or legal liability relating to laws and regulations or failures in internal controls; fluctuations in market prices of securities and other financial assets in which the Panasonic Group has holdings or changes in valuation of non-financial assets, including property, plant and equipment, goodwill and deferred tax assets; future changes or revisions to accounting policies or accounting rules; the possibility of incurring expenses resulting from a leakage of customers' or confidential information from Panasonic Group systems due to unauthorized access or a detection of vulnerability of network-connected products of the Panasonic Group; as well as natural disasters including earthquakes, prevalence of infectious diseases throughout the world, disruption of supply chain and other events that may negatively impact business activities of the Panasonic Group. The factors listed above are not all-inclusive and further information is contained in the most recent English translated version of Panasonic's securities reports under the FIEA and any other documents which are disclosed on its website.
