Osaka, Japan, February 24, 2022 -- Panasonic Corporation (TSE:6752, “Panasonic”) today announced partial amendments with respect to the transition to a holding company system in April 2022 (planned) as described in the press release “Panasonic Announces Transition to a Holding Company System and Change of Corporate Name” dated November 13, 2020, and the each absorption-type company split and the business structure after the transition to a holding company system as described in the press releases “Additional Disclosure with Respect to Transition to a Holding Company System through Absorption-type Company Split” dated February 25, 2021 and “Additional Disclosure with Respect to the Company Splits for Transition to a Holding Company System and Partial Amendments of the Articles of Incorporation” dated May 31, 2021.

The Board of Directors of Panasonic has resolved today to make partial amendments to the “Assets and liabilities of the businesses to be split” in the company split agreement between Panasonic and Panasonic System Solutions Japan Co., Ltd. ("PSSJ"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Panasonic, which is scheduled to take effect on April 1, 2022 (“the amendment of the company split agreement”).

The amendment of the company split agreement is scheduled to take place subject to the approval of PSSJ’s general meeting of shareholders to be held on February 25, 2022 and, necessary, approval from relevant government agencies. Since the company split after the amendment also falls under a short form absorption-type company split as set forth in Article 784, Paragraph 2 of the Companies Act, resolution of shareholders’ meeting of Panasonic concerning approval of the company split will not be adopted.
